To whom it may concern:

1. Why was the Federal Rule for Service by the Marshal for FEE
WAIVER APPROVED plaintiffs not followed in April-May 2018?
2. Why has the MOTION FOR SERVICE gone unanswered since April 2018?
3. When is "140 days" for a pro se defendant?
4. Why have I been denied legal representation?
4. Was caller I.D. the reason it took 22 phone rings for the Clerk to answer My call?
5. Why have I been hung up on assorted times by Clerks when I phone to ask the status of My complaint against TAMU & TAMUS?

April 11, 2018 to November 13, 2018 = 216 calendar days - excluding weekends & holidays = 149 days. TAMU took 96 days when the TAMUS policy was "15 working days" in 2015 - before they changed it to "30 days" August 2015. TAMUS even restructured

TAMU Human Resources after My employment was terminated during the EEOC investigation January 29, 2016. I continue to receive USPS mail addressed as a "Texas A&M University System Employee".

The attorney I hired in 2015 did not get the TAMU EEOC Response documents to Me until 10-28-2016, AFTER I wrote and requested the assistance of My local Congressmen - Bill Flores office was able to find out the status of My 2015 EEOC complaint for Me.

This drawn out wait by the Southern District Court of Houston seems to be a continuation of the attack of My civil rights/due process. Please explain/advise?

Sincerely,

Kamme O
